LUTHERAN HOUR MINISTRIES
People Of Christ With The Message Of Hope

Practical Strategies for Everyday Life

Reach out to families in your community with the love of Christ and a world-class resource. Stressors from every direction impact today's families and many of us could use some fresh insights and support from fellow parents for optimum family health. This need is an opportunity to connect with families in your area. Member and non-member families alike will benefit from this practical and engaging workshop.

This six-week DVD series is based on the ME to WE parenting concept originated by Dr. David Ludwig, leading Christian psychologist. Each weekly video segment features three significant parts: a presentation of the main concept by Dr. Ludwig, followed by Monique Nunes, Principal, early childhood educator and mom, who takes the concept and applies it to real-life situations. Finally, the unconditional truth and love of Jesus Christ are underscored in thoughtful, personal ways by Pastor Ben Gonzales, resonating with people no matter where they are in their relationship with Jesus. Participants are also offered time for sharing in a small group setting, allowing for interaction and opportunities to connect.

Don't miss out on this exciting outreach opportunity – start making plans now for hosting the workshop series in your community. The program may be conducted in individual home groups or in a large venue with table groups serving as small groups.
