LUTHERAN HOUR MINISTRIES

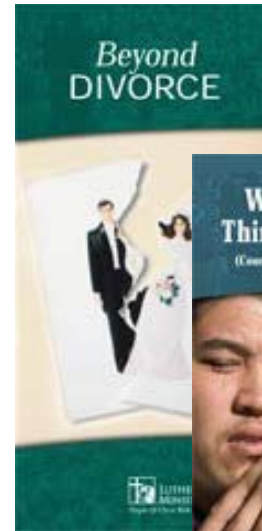

People Of Christ With The Message Of Hope

Little Books on a Big Mission Make the Connection

Everyone faces challenges in life! Those touched by death, sickness, or other tragedies can find comfort and hope in these Christ-centered booklets. For those suffering in silence and pain from psychological and social problems such as abuse, alcoholism, gambling, depression or anxiety, Project Connect can help. These self-serve booklets allow people to get the help they need when they need it most.

Project Connect - a display of topical LHM booklets, written from a Christian perspective, that help church members share Christ. Many people find LHM booklets helpful when they are going through major transitions in their lives. LHM has more than 50 booklet titles to choose from, plus about 30 booklets in Spanish. Booklets can be purchased whether you have a Project Connect display or not. You can also download free PDF's of many of the booklets at www.shoplhm.org.
